Proclamation

WHEREAS,

on June 6, 2001, severe flooding occurred throughout south Louisiana and as a result, a State of Emergency was declared for the parishes of Assumption, Calcasieu, East Baton Rouge, Iberia, Iberville, Lafayette, Lafourche, Livingston, St. Charles, Terrebonne, and Vermilion; and on June 7, 2001, the parishes of Acadia, Allen, Ascension, Beauregard, Jefferson, St. James, St. Martin, St. Tammany and Tangipahoa declared States of Emergency to exist due to heavy rains associated with the remnants of Tropical Storm Allison creating an immediate emergency situation; and the resultant flooding has blocked major access roads to residential and public facilities, forcing evacuations, and is a threat to the life and property of the citizens in the affected areas; and the required response to minimize the effects of this disaster is expected to exceed the parishes' capability to adequately respond.

WHEREAS,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M.J. "Mike" Foster, Jr., Governor of the state of Louisiana, under the authority of the Louisiana Assistance and Disaster Act of 1993 (as amended), do hereby proclaim a State of Emergency issued June 7, 2001, be amended to include the parishes of
